Harold:

I've read and taken notes on the first 37 pp. of the Task Force Report. It's very helpful, particularly in listing file numbers, reports, memorandums, and interviews.

It seems quite evident that its purpose is to do a job on Lane-Gregory and the Select Committee. On this part, they do a pretty good one. It appears that a large part of their interviewing of witnesses relates to the Richmond-Redditt business. They provide a lot of ammo to use against Lane.

Have fun with it.

The new sections of the Headquarters file which I picked up yesterday appear to have very little of interest.
